FISCAL NOTE

HB 2074 - SB 2170

March 21, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Removes the requirement that a person must be a resident of Tennessee for at least two years to qualify for a winery license and authorizes that only domestic corporations can obtain a winery license.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues - Not Significant

Assumption:

 Removing the two-year residency requirement for obtaining a winery license may increase the number of applications for licenses.
